COVID-19 VACCINATION

Find out the facts about COVID-19 vaccinations

With frequent new COVID-19 vaccine developments, it's normal for people to have questions or concerns, and possibly feel unsure about getting a vaccine.

To support you to make informed decisions, evidence-based information is available on the Department of Health's website.

COVID-19 vaccines – Is it true?

COVID-19 vaccines - Is it true? provides clear information addressing common questions and concerns, and separating misinformation from the facts. This resource includes evidence-based responses to a broad range of questions including:

- Is it true? Were COVID-19 vaccines developed too quickly to be safe?
- Is it true? Can COVID-19 vaccines connect me to the internet?
- Is it true? Do COVID-19 vaccines cause infertility?
- Is it true? Can COVID-19 vaccines alter my DNA?
- Is it true? Is the vaccine rollout a cover to collect DNA?
- Is it true? Do I have to pay for the COVID-19 vaccine?
- Is it true? Were COVID-19 vaccines rushed through approvals or given emergency use authorisations in Australia?

Answers to common questions on COVID-19 vaccines is available in 63 languages.

There is also a range of information about COVID-19 vaccines available in English and translated in 63 languages, providing clear information which can be a useful guide in discussing COVID-19 vaccine with workers, residents and family members.

Misinformation and truths about COVID-19

Another excellent resource is the Department of Home Affair's website which features Misinformation and truths about Coronavirus (COVID-19) providing the facts to common misinformation about COVID-19 and vaccination.

A fact sheet is also available on misinformation and the facts on COVID-19.

The SBS Coronavirus Portal is another good resource which includes the latest Australian and international news, information and updates about COVID-19 in 60 languages.